NHHC Mission

- We interpret naval history and heritage, providing historically relevant support to Navy leadership and Sailors to support policy development, enhance readiness and build esprit de corps
- We conduct outreach to the American public that highlights the critical role the Navy plays in their daily lives and the importance of maintaining a strong Navy to protect their basic freedoms and the America's maritime commerce
- We collect, preserve, protect, and make available the artifacts, documents, and art that embody our naval history and heritage for future generations
- We advance the knowledge of naval history and heritage through professional research,

The Naval History and Heritage Command provides the knowledge foundation for the Navy by maintaining historically relevant resources and products that identify what the Navy is and what it stands for
